

Shelley Rocca, NICU Developmental Care RN

Our tiniest patients in the NICU are some of the most vulnerable during their early developmental stages. Using the tools in generate, Shelley Rocca, modified and printed a set of life-like brain models. These models are a unique educational tool used to teach parents how best to interact and care for their baby while supporting brain development.